The streets were quite muddy yesterday, caused from the meiting snow Judge Boreman is the first victim of the "gripp" in Ogden this winter. Judge Patton will go east on an impor-tant business trip in a few days.

Revival meetings are still being held in the Methodist Episcopal church. The "Natural Gas" company will give a matinee in the Grand this afternoon. W. F. Carns came up from Salt Lake yes terday and attended "Natural Gas."

The Liberals will hold their convention in the Grand opera house January 26. No marriage licenses were issued by County Clerk J. P. Ledwidge yesterday. Only one plain drunk occupied the attention of his honor in police court yesterday.

men in Ogden, has opened up a shorthand and typewriting school in the First Na-tional bank building. Mr. E. J. Mitchell, of New York, is in the city endeavoring to induce the city dads to purchase a chemical engine for the Ogden fire department.

The adjourned general meeting of the Second ecclesiastical ward of the Weber stake was held in the Second ward meeting house last evening.

"Natural Gas" was presented again at the Grand last evening to a large audience. Donnelly and Girard, the fun makers, per-formed their parts as well as ever.

Mr. Lee Gibson, of the firm of Groves & Gibson, returned yesterday from a business trip to the east. He reports that times are very dull there and that Utah will have an immense immigration from those parts in the swelps.

Prisoners Scarce.

The police have had a quiet time of it for several weeks pastf only three prisoners were behind the bars yesterday, and the prospects of a healthy hobo crop is exceed-ingly slim just at present. For some cause the streets have been rid of that class of

New Probate Judge.

In a few days Probate Judge R. W. Cross will retire from the office which he has so efficiently filled during the last two years. His commission expired a few days ago, and President Harrison, thinking a Republican should officiate, appointed Mr. A. C. Bishop. Judge Cross has won hosts of friends during the the time he held the position of probate judge in this city. He has the reputation of being kind and accommodating to all and expecially to revenue. dating to all, and especially to newspaper representatives. Whether he was busy or not, he would always meet them with pleasure and assist them all he could in giving items of news. that they will not be troubled by freezing. Since the street was put down to the present grade the pipes have frozen up and caused much annoyance. Referred to committee on water supply with power to act. The Ogden Liberal band petitioned the council for the use of the south room in the basement of the city hall for practice. On motion of Mr. Shilling the petition was transfed.

Several bills were allowed, and after transacting some miscellaneous business the council adjourned.
